people of the 32nd Judicial who are now on the eve of their candidate to make the Circuit Judge. I feel it to make public our experi-Mr. Redwine as Prosecuthey. As Mr. Redwine has ation of being a great tem-eat, and a whiskey fighter. want others to lose faith by actual experience. I profit by my experience. I I were to keep still the very of misery and will fill in its grave.

walk. Some would get down road; they could go no far-home as best he could.

the heart sickening sight happened daily. At last I effort to stop it. So with the consent and help of my I got up a petition (signed woman who had an opporto sign it) and nearly all the majoring Redwine to put a this illicit selling of the stuff, and in the name of help us to save our boys. short time we got a letter Redwine, telling Mr. Kitchen his test, he would stand letters to us. Mr. Kitchen eight boys—all under age, restarted for the Elliott court. Probably each could made as many indictments as or two. But when they got self way, Redwine turned them a telephone message, say-had compromised. Mr. Kitchen out about $12 or $15 and as to say. If we want to do some "dirty work" we want some one that will stand by us."

I would to God women could vote, and I surely believe every woman in this town would vote for Hannah.
Ladies of the W. C. T. U., now in your time to work. See that the man that will deal the death blow to whiskey is put in office. We can not vote, but they can not keep us from talking. Mind your armies, go to fighting. In my opinion the way to stop illicit whiskey selling is to put men in office who will honestly punish the offender, and not bustle the laws of our country.
Believing Mr. Hannah to be the right man, there shall be a prayer in my heart day and night that he will be the successful man. Let every mother do the same.

The Big Tree.

The Ohio State Journal recently contained a picture of the King of the Big Sandy River with the following sketch:
The King of the Big Sandy River is the largest log ever floated out of the Cumberland mountains. The king is a red sycamore tree, which for years has been a landmark on the Big Sandy river in the mountains of Northwestern Kentucky.
Old trappers and hunters used the king as a landmark and flatboatmen often referred to him, and of late years he has been an object of much interest to lumbermen.
Last fall J. W. Taylor, general manager of the General Lumber Company of Columbus purchased the king and had him cut down and prepared for market. The log is 60 inches in diameter at the smaller end, 64 feet long and contains 9000 square feet of inch lumber. The big log was floated to the mill of the General Lumber Company at Ashland, Ky., on the Ohio river, but in the high water of last winter washed away.
"The king enjoyed his freedom in-ly for a short time, as he was recaptured at Portsmouth. He will be towed to Cincinnati this week, cut into quarter-sawn veneers and probably will be made into cigar boxes."

MURDER.

Fred Newsome Killed Burtie Hamilton in Floyd County.

Fred Newsome shot and killed Hurt Hamilton on Beaver in Floyd county last Monday evening. One report says the men were on their way home from a circus at Pikeville and renewed an old grudge that has existed between them. Another report says Newsome waylaid Hamilton.
There has been serious trouble between the men before. About a year ago they had a fight in which both were badly wounded. Hamilton was cut by Newsome so badly that it was several months before he recovered. At the same time Newsome was shot by Hamilton, but the wound did not prove to be very serious.
The following is from the Ashland Independent:
News has just reached here of a murder that occurred Monday in Mul Creek, in Floyd county, in which Muk Newsome, 21 years of age, shot his life at the hands of Bert Hamilton. Hamilton had just been released from the penitentiary, where he had served seven years for killing a man named Hall. Details of the tragedy have not yet been heard here.

To Take Over Kentucky Lands.

Mr. J. W. M. Stewart, of Ashland, relating to the Bascomb Coal and Lumber Co., which has incorporated with an authorized capital stock of $300,000, says that the company was organized to take over coal lands held by other corporations in the Kentucky river district. He states that negotiations are at present pending which, if consummated, will result in the transfer of about 50, 000 acres in that field now owned by another company. Plans for development have not been definitely determined. Among the incorporators of the company are Messrs. J. E.
Wager, J. W. M. Stewart, H. E. Whitman and J. G. Serey, of Ashland, and J. M. Hopkins, of Catlettsburg.

THE FREE TRIP.

Much Interest in the Big Sandy News Trip To Jamestown, Richmond and Washington.

NEW FEATURE ADDED TO STIMULATE SUBSCRIPTION WORK.

There are a good many dollars all the Big Sandy News by persons not interested in the Jamestown contest and who do not cast any votes in it. Thus we designate as "Don't Care" votes. In order to stimulate the work for few subscribers we have decided to divide these votes amongst the three candidates having the greatest number of new subscriptions to their credit at a date to be announced later. The division of these votes will probably be 50 per cent to the one having the largest number, 30 per cent to the next and 20 to the next.
Definite announcement will be made a little later. This is a double inducement to work for new subscribers.

Two Veterans.

They live in Martin county, not far from the Lawrence county line.
One of them is a man, by name Geo.
W. Daniels and of age 81 years, and has been voting the Democratic ticket 60 years.

The other veteran is a mule, and he is Uncle George's "partner." The bigged veteran bought his quadruped companion when it was only a yearling, and that was in 1874. Last Saturday Uncle George and the mule were at work "laying off" corn ground, both hale and hearty.
These two live on the Wooten fork of the Stafford fork of Rockcastle and are well known and popular "citizens."

The Mule.

Old John Randolph, of Roanoke, famously spoke of a mule as having no pride of ancestry and without hope of posterity, but the hypocrite sizes up better in the financial world than his aristocratic cousin, the lordly horse. According to the government bureau of statistics, the average value of horses in this county is $93.51, while mules average $112.12. While not much en-looks and with no pedigree to speak of, the people whose business it is to handle both find more dollars in the long ears than in his showy companion of the draft.

Tom Workman In Jail.

Deputy Sheriff John Hopkins, of Floyd county, came to Louisa yesterday morning, bringing with him Tom Workman, whom he had arrested in Catlettsburg on a capias from the Lawrence Circuit Court. Workman was charged with selling liquor in Floyd county, being, as many believe, the seller of the stuff which caused the murder of Miss Sophie Ross on Bear creek last summer. Sheriff Hopkins delivered his prisoner to the jailer whose guest he will probably be until next fall, if not longer.

The NEWS publishes elsewhere a letter written by Henry Fischer, the noted sheep and goat raiser, to the American Sheep Breeder. The letter is published in the magazine was illustrated with a fine picture of Mr. Fischer's herd. It will interest you to read the letter.

The Hargis Cases.

James Hargis was acquitted in his trial at Lexington and brooded at once to Sandy Hook to face another murder charge. Judge Redwine declined to sit in the case, stating that he did so because of criticisms made through the newspapers.

Up to this writing the Governor has not appointed a special Judge, but he is expected to do so at any time.

The prosecution has shown very little interest in the proceedings so far, and no witnesses for this side have been summoned.

Commonwealth's Attorney Waugh has wired that he will be there at the proper time, but indications are that he expects to ask for a continuance until the October term.

Reports have been circulated to the effect that the prosecution would be abandoned and the cases dismissed or filed away.

Attorney B. R. Joubert, of Winchester, said over the telephone this afternoon that he and A. Floyd Hurd had not abandoned the prosecution of the Hargis cases at Sandy Hook.

"We have no power to abandon the prosecution," he said. "Commonwealth's Attorney Waugh has full charge of the cases and he wired us that the cases would be continued till October. We therefore did not go to Sandy Hook and will not go until summoned by Waugh."

Graham College.

The Graham (Va. Banner has, among other things, this to say of the school and the late Commencement exercises:

The singing of little Harvey Dally and the reciting of little Miss Goodwill McClure deserves special mention here. These tiny children executed their parts in the program in a manner that would have been a credit to persons many times their age.

A feature of the evening exercises not down on the program was the presentation to Prof. McClure, by the students, of a handsome gold watch-chain. The professor ac-knowledgeed his thanks for the gift in his usual characteristic witty manner.

Much to the regret of the school and the public, Prof. Byington, of Kentucky, could not be present to deliver his address as scheduled for Wednesday morning.

Graham College made splendid progress during the term just closed under the leadership of Prof. J. H.
McClure, and, not only is this a source of pride to the friends of the school, but proof of Prof. McClure's ability as a school man and also proof of the fact that the college can be made a success under proper management.

Mr. McClure has been called to a professorship in the Kentucky Normal College, at Louisa, Ky., which position he has accepted to the regret of the citizens of Graham, as it has been hoped that he would be retained here where, through indefatigable courage and untiring effort he has made a new record for Graham College.

The Ball Game.

The Ashland club came up last Friday and played a game with the home team. The game took place on the ball grounds in Fountain Park and was quite well attended. The game was a good one, and although our boys came home covered with defeat as well as dust they have nothing to be ashamed of.

At the close of the Ninth inning the score was a tie—2 and 2. A tenth and final inning was played in which Ashland made three runs and the home club scored zero. To be Rule was chosen umpire and performed his thankless duties impartially.

PERT PARAGRAPHS

Picked Up At Pike, Paint and Prestonsburg.

The Johnson County Committee in session last week decided to hold a primary election for the purpose of selecting a nominee for Representative in this district.

Whiteburg, Ky., May 24. — Mrs.
Ellen Flanery, a widow, was murdered at her home on Pert creek and her body was thrown into a deep drain. Her skull was fractured and there were several knife wounds.
There was no witness to the crime, so far as known. Floyd Frazier is under arrest.

The C. and O. put Doc. Swetnam, of White House, out of the stock business and so Doc. is suing.
He claims the loss of about a half dozen cows and steers and about as many hogs. His case was passed until the July term.

The C. and O. killed a good row each for Harris Williams and George McCloud and Juries gave each a judgment for $35. We

The Herald has a straight tip that The Page Lumber Co., paid Dan Davis $45,900 for the timber recently purchased on the 2,000 acre boundary on Jennies Creek. This is the largest timber deal yet closed in this section. The timber said to be the finest grade and the Page Company will spend thousands of dollars putting the timber on the market. Big band mills will be established on the land at once.—Paints-ville Herald.

Sergeant, Ky., May 25. Fearing mob violence to young Floyd Frazier, charged with the murder of Mrs. Ellen Flanery last Wednesday, the authorities spirited him across the mountains to-day, en route to the jail at Stanford for safekeeping. Frazier confessed to a prisoner in the jail here this morning that he committed the crime, and later repeated his story to the guard accompanying him to Stanford, detailing in full his horrible deed. Commonwealth Attorney Ira Fields and others made a systematic search of the Frazier home this afternoon, and found the bloody pants worn by young Frazier on the day of the murder.

A warrant was issued to-day for Mrs. Nannie Adams, young Floyd Frazier's mother. In connection with the murder of Mrs. Ellen Flanery, and officers have gone to arrest her.
The murdered woman's brother, Joseph Mullins, has arrived from Washington, and the body will be exhumed for a closer examination.

The latest to join the Louisa troop of pony riders is Miss Roberta Dixon. Her mount is a beautiful Shetland, bought from the Van Amburg Show.

AWFUL DETAILS

Of the Burning of Rev. Short's Children at East Point.

Further particulars have been received from East Point about the burning of Rev. Short's residence and children.

The fire occurred at eleven o'clock at night. It originated in the kitchen and the only stairway leading to the floor was located in the kitchen. When the flames and smoke awakened Mr. and Mrs. Short the kitchen and stairway had already been consumed and they larely had time to escape through a window opening over a porch. Their three little girls were sleeping in the room with them. These all escaped through the window.

The entrance to the room where the three boys were sleeping was cut off and by the time Mr. Short reached the ground he could hear the frantic cries of the little fellows, one of whom was four years old, another eight, and the third older. While Mr. Short was trying to climb to a window the oldest boy was breaking out the glass and trying to save his little brothers, whose cries by this time were heart-rending. The heat and smoke was stifling and about the time the oldest boy was ready to lift one of the others to the window a blind fell, striking him in the face, adding confusion to his already dazed condition, and causing him to drop his brother. The flames were now upon him and all he could do was to swing himself out through the window, so badly burned that there is but little hope for his recovery.

Another sad feature is that Mr.
Short had another child burned to death a few years ago, while living in this county.

Judge Redwine's Court.

Louisa, Ky., May 4, 1907.
Editor Kentucky Issue: Our circuit court has just closed here. Judge M. M. Redwine's instructions to the grand jury were terrific against the sale of whiskey and against the crimes growing out of the sale and use of spirituous liquors. Several men were tried and fined heavily on this class of offenses. Judge Redwine instructed that distillers are not protected by wholesaling if they sell to the consumer in any way, to wholesale is to sell to the dealer, and this ruling is what is putting a number to distillers out of business.
Two of them came into court at this term and renounced the business, that has given our people so much trouble, and executed bond in the sum of $500 each that they would not again violate the law. A few more courts like Judge Redwine's and this great evil will be driven out of our county. The serpent's head will soon be cut off.

Fraternally,
S. F. Reynolds.

Van Amburg.

Van Amburg's Show was in Louisa last Saturday and gave an exhibition far above the average in quantity and quality. The display of animals was very good, and the ring performance brought out some exceedingly good things in varied lines. The acts of the Japs and the slack wire performance were by far the best ever seen in Louisa. The band is large and excellent.

Shortly after the door opened for the afternoon performance the rain poured in torrents, and at night it stormed again. But this was only to be expected on circus day.

New Church at Inez.

The Southern Methodists of Inez, Martin county, are going to build a new house of worship. It will be ample in size, modern in style and construction, and will be built of concrete blocks. This was determined during the recent visit of the Revs.
Williams and Huette, and the work will begin at an early day, and will be pushed to completion as rapidly as possible.

The men who are backing this double undertaking are very much in earnest, and have both means and desire to accomplish as good an end.

As To Candidates.

The Big Sandy News has always maintained a neutral position in local races for Democratic nominations. Our readers may depend upon the fact that we are paid for the publication of every article that has any bearing upon the candidacy of any one, directly or indirectly. All candidates are given the privilege of using the columns on the same terms. The articles are published as advertising and do not carry with them the endorsement of the NEWS.

The premium list for the Lawrence County Fair will be made up soon so that the farmers will know what to work for. The list of products will, however, be about the same as heretofore. Let every farmer begin now to prepare for exhibits.

The question of good roads is the greatest problem before the people of the mountains of Kentucky. It takes money to build good roads, but they are the best asset that any people can have. When we make up our minds to go at the job right, as we shall finally have to do, it will be the greatest step forward ever taken.

Wm. E. Fogg, whom the Governor named as Col. Greene's successor, as a State Prison Commissioner is a well-known young lawyer of the mountain section of Kentucky. He is the Democratic State Executive Committeeman for the Tenth congressional district, and is quite active in Democratic politics of his end of the State. He has been making a quiet canvass among Democratic nominees for the Legislature for election to succeed Commissioner Greene, and will continue in the race.

There have been so many reports this spring of half the fruit crop being killed, a quarter of it being surely destroyed, etc., that we are led to wonder how many halves and quarters a single fruit crop really has, says the Carlisle Democrat. And, within, we are sure to have some fruit. All of which goes to prove that the cat is not the only thing that has nine lives.

Justice J. E. Cantrell tendered his resignation from the bench of the Court of Appeals and Commissioner J. D. Carroll was appointed his successor by Gov. Beckham.

On the nineteenth ballot, McDonald Ferguson, the present Railroad Commissioner, was nominated for re-election by the First district Democratic convention at Henderson.

Mrs. William McKinley, who was stricken by paralysis at her home in Canton, O., last Friday, died at 1:05 o'clock Sunday afternoon. The transition from life to death was so peaceful and gradual that it was with difficulty that the vigilant physicians and attendants noted when dissolution came.

There was no struggle, no pain. Mrs. McKinley never knew of the efforts made for days to prolong her life nor of the solicited hope and hope of her sister and other relatives and friends, for her recovery.

Mrs. McKinley's last words were for death. An attendant said: "Mrs. McKinley would say: 'Why should I linger? Please, God, let it be thy will, why defer it?' She would also say, 'He is gone and life is dark to me now.' Other kindred expressions fell from her lips."

She was buried Wednesday.

The road from this place to Wellsville is almost impassable, mud holes that are dangerous to go through. We think if the overseers along this line could be induced to put in their time it would save so much kerslp.

Hager.

Holington, Kans., May 6.—We Jay-hawkers are in the midst of very peculiar weather. During March the thermometer registered 90 in the shade. In April, the temperature was changeable, varying from warm to freezing, accompanied with snow, and May has been very damp and chilly with some snow. As a result of the above we have not put on fruit, but this cold weather has been very favorable to wheat.

We look forward to a fine crop of wheat, corn and grass. All Western Kansas is being broken now, preparing for next year's wheat crop. This peculiar weather has not of late on a western farmer, they are only stimulated to plant larger crops for the next year. The acreage this year exceeds by far any previous year. Next year no doubt will still be greater.

You would have reasons to believe it could you see those engines drawing the plows on the prairie, cutting from 12 to 16 feet at one turn.

The sugar beet industry is assuming huge proportions in Western Kansas, and one of the largest sugar factories in the U. S. is at Garden City, Kans.

Sugar beet land sells as high as $15000 per acre along the Arkansas river, which could have been bought three years ago for $3000 per acre. This factory uses from 1000 to 1500 tons of beets a day, which makes 225,000 lbs. of sugar. It consumes 125 tons of coal per day and enough water to supply a city of 50,000 people.

Stock raising is quite an industry in this State and the farmer and ranchman are giving it much attention, but the Kansas Hen takes the lead of all the states in the poultry business, and egg production.

The growing of small fruits is demanding a great deal of attention, and in fact everything thrives here that will grow any place. So I feel safe in saying that Kansas is one of the greatest, if not the greatest agricultural State in the Union.

When I realize all these advantages and facilities I am puzzled to know that so many people in the East on a little poor hillside farm will labor and toil only for subsistence and the maintenance of their families, when all this broad West, so rich in soil and resources by life, and yet a finer climate can not be found one more healthy and salubrious. We have a great country and the hospitality of our people unlimited, making it a most desirable place to live and build homes. I close with God's admonition to young men, "Come West."

Yours truly,
Dr. T. C. Burton.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills relieve pain—not only once, but as many times as it is necessary to take them. Many persons who suffer from chronic ailments find in them a source of great relief from the suffering which they would otherwise be compelled to endure. Their soothing influence upon the nerves strengthen rather than weaken them. For this reason they seldom lose their effectiveness.

"I am 62 years old and have suffered for 42 years from nervous troubles, rheumatism and neuralgia, palpitation of the heart, shortness of breath, sleeplessness, and pain around the heart. The Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills have been a blessing to me. I don't know what I should do without them, and they are the only remedy I have ever used that either did not wear out in less time than I have been using them, or else the injurious results were such that I would be obliged to cease their use."
